OBAMA

CELEBRATE HOPE

The renowned Anna Wilding Obama Collection

For the first time ever: Celebrate President's Day and Black History Month at the Perfect Exposure Gallery. Featuring the Obama Administration at the White House by award winning filmmaker and still photographer Anna Wilding.

A stunning body of work featuring exclusive photographs of the "Peoples House" Anna Wilding moved to Washington DC and became fully immersed and based at the White House over 2015-2017. Annas photos have achieved worldwide critical acclaim, are held in collections on both the East and West Coasts and have appeared in magazines, newspapers worldwide and even Jimmy Kimmel Live.

"Whereas President Obama was a symbol for hope and change when he ran his election, I think those words, in particular "hope" are more relevant Post Presidency, as we hope for a time when the White House becomes a dignified office once more, no matter the partisan party inside it" Anna Wilding

"[Anna's] Obama images make me think ... I call it, 'Obama Classicism,' after the great masters - Raphael; Leonardo."

Sherwood "Woody" Omens A.S.C. Winner Presidents Award-American Society of Cinematographers

Also featuring select work by Johnny Simmons A.S.C and Armando Arorizo
